Today's Program: AIAGE Cycling Team

The program was introduced by Bill Trivitt. Today's program - members of the AIAGE cycling team, Joe, Larry, and Ryan. The AIA part stands for the American Institute of Architects, but cyclists on the team actually came from a wide variety of occupations. Ryan did most of the talking. His favorite race was his 2002 victory that involved 24 hours of cycling 300 miles and 30,000 feet of elevation. At 34 years old, despite all the pain and injuries, he can't seem to walk away from the sport. He trains about 20 hours per week.

This week in Business: The meeting started at 12:20 pm sharp with Susan Leedy at the podium. Pam Mahan led the invocation and Bill Lewis led the flag salute.

Bruce Keith led the club with the song that we do best, God Bless America.

Visiting Rotarians were introduced by Scott Begin: Jim and Sandy Anderson from Fountain Hills Arizona, and Michael Chase from the North club.

Guests included Brock and Niko Burger, and Jack Spencer's guest Randy.

Birthdays: Dave Haynes and Bill Lewis

Spouse Birthday: Woody Tarpley

Club Anniversary: Kay Schrader

Judy Rolf gave us an update on Stan Lewis. Treatment is going well and they are ready to perform surgery on August 7th.

Carole Cohen gave us the sad story of her balloon misadventures. Apparently all those happy face balloons she brought to the meeting last week escaped as she was getting into her car. So this week we get a new set of “Pink Flamingo” balloons. All this is to call attention to the backpack donation drive. Susan Leedy gave a report on Christmas in July. Warm meals and very warm weather. 250 people were served and seven Rotoractors assisted the Rotarians.

Rotarian Magazine Assignments: It doesn’t really matter. If your name gets called you’re buying a hat. Johnson Jung described it as a “no win situation”. Bruce Keith and Tom Burch got to share Johnson’s pain.

BERC Trivia: Again, Susan has hats to sell, this time the victim was Mark Ramsey.

The first 50-50 drawing was held at the end of the meeting, and Karen McKinzie was the winner of $119. She graciously donated the winnings to the backpack drive (only she doesn’t know it yet.) A new rule for the 50-50 drawing was voted in – winners must be present at the time of the drawing.
